

Prof J.W.A. (Jeroen) Rheinfeld has been a partner at FBN Juristen since 2018. As a consultant and lecturer, he specialises in registry practice and specifically in agricultural law. With effect from 1 June 2020, Jeroen has been appointed extraordinary professor of agricultural law at the University of Groningen. He is also a partner at the Institute for Agricultural Law in Wageningen and an editorial board member of the Tijdschrift voor Agrarisch Recht, the Land- en Tuinbouw Bulletin and the Notarisklerk, and is a permanent member of the FBN editorial board. Jeroen received his PhD from Radboud University in 2014 for a dissertation on parcel exchange. He also works at this university as a university lecturer, giving lectures on agricultural law. Since 2004, he regularly publishes in (agro-)legal journals and teaches courses on a broad civil, tax and notarial field.
