III CEDR Mediterranean Forum

Which Common Agricultural Policy for the future after Brexit?

A dialogue between market, financial and environmental sustainability

Università La Sapienza Roma

Facoltà di Giurisprudenza

Sala Lauree

Piazzale A. Moro, 5

7 February 2020

14.30

Welcome Addresses

Prof. Oliviero Diliberto

Dean of the Faculty of Law

Prof. Luisa Avitabile

Director of the Legal Sciences Department

Mr Geoff Whittaker

President of CEDR

Prof. A. Sciaudone

Vice President of AICDA

Presentations

Invited speakers

FAO

Prof. Irene Canfora (Univ. Bari)

Young farmers,

small farmers and family farms in the new CAP

Prof. Esther Muniz (Univ. Valladolid)

Cibersecurity and Agri-food supply chain

Mr Jean Baptiste Millard (Assoc. Française de Droit Rural - Agridées think tank)

New CAP and sustainable transition

Prof. Michael Cardwell (Univ. Leeds)

The new Agriculture Bill 2020

Prof. Aneta Suchon (Univ. Poznan)

Common Agriculture Policy after Brexit from the Polish perspective

Prof. Mariagrazia Alabrese (Scuola Superiore S. Anna – Pisa)

Climate Change and agriculture in the EU policy pathways

Margherita Brunori (Univ. Milano)

Which pathways for enhancing agrobiodiversity conservation in the new CAP reform?

Prof. Esther Muniz

Conclusions